VOLUME ELEVEN, SECOND ISSUE FRIDAY, MAY 9TH, 1952----

MAY 11TH IS MOTHER'S DAY!!

TO ALL THE "MOMS"-----

This loving message doesn't say--

Anything 'specially new;

It just repeats on Mother's Day---

"There's no one quite like you!

You're very sweet and thoughtful--

You're all a fine Mother can be;

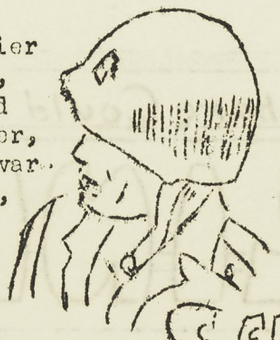

And on Mother's Day--

and every day----

You're loved---especially!!

FROM ALL OF US!!

The BYLINE weekly goes on sale Thursday afternoons, at the following stores: ALMA'S VARIETY---THE BYLINE OFFICE---THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH---LES'S MARKET---THE BRISBANE LIQUOR & DELICATESSEN STORE---& HERBERT'S STORE. Also on sale on Thurs. afternoons, by NEWSBOYS. 10¢ per copy.
Home Delivery service; 40¢ month, or $4.50 per year. Mail service; 50¢ per month, or $5.00 per year.

THE SERVICEMAN:

HI-YA, GANG!!-- How do you like our new set-up on the paper? Looks better--easier to assemble the items--and reads better, huh? News from here and there--here and now:--Home on leave; Cpl. Glenndon Staser, son of Louis and Grace Staser of 369 Alvarado St., Brisbane--home on 30 day leave, after serving as a mechanic with the 1343rd Combat Battalion. He entered the Army in January, 1951. WELCOME HOME, GLENN! DUE HOME ON LEAVE:--Don Walton, son of Mrs. Helen Brady, of 375 Klamath St., Brisbane. We hear that he landed on Wednesday of this week--but won't be able to come home until maybe Friday---then he'll be here some thirty days. Don is a member of the 35th Infantry Regiment, stationed overseas for some time. WELCOME HOME, DON!! And--elsewhere in this issue of the BYLINE you will read about the surprise wedding of the Airforce's BOB MINK, back in Denver, Colorado. CONGRATULATIONS, BOB!---Now, for some letters:

ABOARD THE U.S.S.BOXER--April 14: Dear Reeces: As of now, I am here sweating the line to go to the movies! Well, I am fine, and I hope you folks are the same. I received the BYLINE today when we got replenishments. We also got gas and petrol and plenty of Ammo--because TOMORROW will be a big day for the gunnery department! Yes, we will finally get our action. Since it is Easter Sunday, we will lay our eggs in a very special place!.....(next day): Sorry I didn't finish this letter last night, but tonight, Easter Sunday, I will. I'll start all over, but I had a disappointment today. They woke us up at 2:30 to man our battle stations. Our Task Force #77 is the first and only one to go up in between Korea and Russia. By Jet we were 10 minutes from the Russian zone (we were 50 miles from shore). Our planes and Jets made the biggest strike on a seaport in Korea. We threw everything at them from 250 lb bombs to 2000 lb bombs, and to top it off, our planes purposely dropped one....you know where. So you see, the lid might pop off in time to come. My disappointment was that we of the gunnery division didn't get to fire any of the ammo we stocked up to fire. Our planes made two runs which took two hours apiece. But the trouble is--we are still heading north. I wouldn't put it past them to throw us all in the Siberian Salt Mines! Well--in your BYLINE I found Don Kline's address, so thanks a lot. I must close for now---except for one thing: the radio station in Moscow is sure throwing mud at the U.S.A. and Task Force 77. I think they are sort of mad and surprised at our bombing missions! They have a girl broadcasting like Japan's Tokyo Rose. Maybe you'll hear or read about it later on, so 'bye for now.----from "one of your boys"---TONY MURILLO. (A.J.MURILLO, 555-51-80 U.S.N.--5th Div.--U.S.S.BOXER, C.V. 21--c/o F.P.O. San Francisco, California.)

April 28,1952---WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

Dear Reeces: Just wanted to say hello. Goodbye!--WALTER L. DOUTHAT, AF19436851--BARRACKS 314, S.A.F.B., WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS. p.s.--Sure is hot down here--I got your Byline's today--sure was nice to see that there are some 49 other guys from home in the Service besides me. They got a new deal out--if you want a discharge, all you have to do is serve four years or commit suicide! We just had a party--they served cake and drinks--(a cake of soap and hot water--they call it a G.I. Party!) I wouldn't trade this life for anything. That is, unless somebody offered me a few dollars! Well, I'd better say goodbye again; before I do, tell Kline he owes me a letter!---as ever, WALT. (Editor's note:--YOU RASCAL,YOU!!) YE EDITOR.

BIRTHS: We see by the papers that Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Villalobos, of 300 Sierra Point Road, Brisbane, are the proud parents of a son, born on April 29th, 1952---

We also hear from our good friend, Mrs. Vera Scott, of the Fountain of Youth, that daughter Allene Doris (Scott) and her husband, Kelly Youngblood, are now bragging about their brand new daughter, Linda Louise Youngblood, born on April 29th, 1952. The Youngbloods now reside at 1100 Hyde Street in San Francisco, although Doris is well-known here, having worked at her mother's fountain for quite some time. Congratulations, Kelly and Doris!

WEDDINGS: Two of our most "elicible" bachelors have taken the big leap off the deep end lately. So now, you "leap-year" gals can just stop casting goo-goo eyes at BOB MINK and DAVE WITH! Here's our "society" items for today:

From the Post-Register, of Ashton, Idaho; April 5th,1952;

"Miss Janis Arlene Rankin of Ashton, Idaho exchanged wedding vows with David Harold With, of Brisbane, California, this week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George H. Allen. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kenderson Rankin of Ashton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mel Edmonds, of Brisbane."

The bridegroom, Mr. David With, is well-known here in Brisbane, also having several brothers residing here. He made the trip north by auto, as did his mother, Mrs. Edmonds. The ceremony was a formal affair, with the bride dressed in white marquisette over white taffeta, and her finger-tip veil was of white Nylon tulle. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin ribbons. The bridesmaids wore pink organdy formals, while the bride's mother was dressed in a grey afternoon dress. Mrs. Edmonds wore a rose and black ensemble with gold accessories. Baskets of pink and white snapdragons and double white ranunculi tied with pink and white satin bows, and candelabra holding lighted white tapers were used to decorate the church. A reception honoring the young couple was given by the bride's parents at their home, following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. David With are now "at home" to their many friends here in Brisbane.

An April wedding joining Brisbane's Bob Mink in marriage to Denver's Nanci Lynn Shaw has been announced here. The bride is 18 years of age, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Gulick, of 1036 Grant Avenue, Denver, Colorado. The groom is 19 years of age, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mink, of Brisbane, California.

Bob has been away from Brisbane for a few months, in training at both the Keesler Airforce Base in Biloxi, Mississippi, and the Lowry Airforce Base at Denver, Colorado, where he met Miss Shaw. He is now stationed with the 109th Fighter Inter. Sq., at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport, at St. Paul, Minnesota. He has been home on leave only recently--surprising his folks and his many friends with news of his marriage at Denver.

IN HOSPITAL: We have just heard that Mrs. Bea Carrigan, of 104 San Benito Road, Brisbane, was scheduled to have undergone at operation at the Hahneman Hospital in San Francisco this past Sunday morning. We also understand that Mr. John Carrigan is wandering around "in a cast", suffering some broken bones! (It never rains, but that it simply POURS!)

P.T.A. CERTIFICATE: An Honorable Mention Certificate was awarded to the Brisbane P.T.A. for it's publicity book of 1951-52. Mrs. Roy Edwards, junior past-president, accepted the award at a recent meeting of the 17th Dist. in San Mateo. Presenting the certificate was Mrs. W.V.Bohn. Credit for this award goes to the past publicity chairman, Mrs. Frank Hughes. Good work, Helen! (Dorothy Radoff P.T.A.publicity.)

POLITICS

News Releases--

BOCCI: In a letter to the press, Richard Lyons, prominent north end attorney, and heading an attorneys' committee for the election of Judge Bocci to the post of Municipal Court Judge, Northern District, stated as follows: "Very recently, Judge Bocci's opponent made charges of misuse of certain words with respect to his campaign for the new Judgeship. A categorical denial must first be made that Judge Bocci at any time termed himself "incumbent" or authorized the use of that word in any of his political advertising.

With respect to the use of the words 're-elect' and 'retain', it is only fair to note that these matters were taken up at a meeting of the attorneys supporting Judge Bocci, and it was felt that these words were properly allowable in Judge Bocci 's campaign, not so much to indicate that he is seeking re-election as Municipal Court Judge, which is not the case, but rather that he is seeking re-election and retention as district Judge in this area.

It should be noted that Judge Bocci was elected as the district Judge in 1950 for a four-year term. The new Municipal Court, in the general sense of the word, is also a district Court, governing the same district as Judge Bocci's Court now covers. Judge Bocci is the sole Northond Elective County Judge, and seeks to be retained the Judge of the North End of the County. He is certainly not the incumbent of this office and it was never intended that anyone should so believe.

Judge Bocci is a very honorable person and has carried on the work of the Justice Court in the highest vein of judicial tradition. The attorneys who are most interested in the Municipal Court, and who will be devoting their practice to that Court are strongly endorsing the candidacy of Judge Bocci for that office. They are; Richard Lyons, Harold Elkins, Paul de Mare, R.L.Ariani, Ben Mortara, Jr., Tom B. Markley, A.J.Sciampini, Walter J. McElroy, Anthony Fiore, Thomas Needham, Henry Davis, Ruth L. Smith, Clyde S. West, Jr., Marcel P. Biscay, Frank Blum, William Nagel, Jr., and Frank Piombo."

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

BECKER: Names of the official sponsors of Judge Charles Becker for the new Municipal Court on the north Peninsula were announced recently. Among the list of official sponsors of the Becker candidacy, which includes leaders in the various districts, are Louis Avanzino and Florence Bell, of Brisbane; Ray Logan, of Broadmoor; Dorothy Cutler of Lomita Park; Herman Scampini and Arnold Brams of South San Francisco; Bartley Flynn and Elmer Vaccari (Brisbane property owner) of Colma; and Norma Becker--Lyal Inersoll, William Lavagino, Theodore Hopman, and Mrs. B. Dormay, of Daly City.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

KEFAUVER: The first face-to-face clash between Senator Estes Kefauver, Democratic presidential candidate, and Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, Attorney General for the state of California, who is heading a Democratic uninstructed presidential delegation, will take place at the Jefferson-Jackson dinner to be held Friday evening, May 23rd at the San Mateo County Fiesta Building, East 25th Avenue, San Mateo.

Scheduled first as a campaign fund raising event, the dinner will become the first major battleground in aseries of crucial debates to capture the all-important Democratic delegation to the national convention. Featured speakers will be Kefauver, Brown, and Congressman Clinton D. McKinnon, Democratic candidate for United States Senator from California. In view of the recent public disagreement between Brown and the California leaders of the Kefauver forces, the event will attract a large audience, and may easily become the biggest Democratic rally in the Bay area.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

CREEDON: James W. McClenahan, general campaign chairman for Judge Daniel J.Creedon, candidate on both Republican and Democratic tickets for election in the June 3rd primaries, to the Sate Assembly from the 25th district, recently announced names of chairmen and committees for communities in this district. Members of both political parties are included. In Brisbane, Harris Hooper, of 1100 Humboldt Road, will serve as chairman. In accepting the post, Hooper said, "I am most enthusiastic about Judge Creedon's campaign. Because he has lived on the Peninsula practically all his life, he understands our problems and will make an ideal representative for this district." Hooper will be assisted in Brisbane by Lester E. Bybee.

JEFF'S COACH LAIR A BUSY MAN:

Daly City:---Jefferson High coach Clarence Lair is a busy man. He's been handling his own frosh-soph baseball team all season and has been handling the varsity baseball team since after the first game. Regular varsity baseball coach, Glenn South, who also doubles as the school's dean of boys, still convalescing from an appendectomy he had early last month.

BRISBANE ATHLETES MAKING HEADLINES:

Mentioned lately in the sports sections of Peninsula papers are the following Brisbane youths: LEO VILLAR--DON DELBON--RICH CHENTHAM--JERRY YARBOROUGH--LARRY BLANCHARD--and DON WILSON.

RECENT JEFF GAMES:

In recent games against other P.A.L. teams, Jeff has made quite a showing in the all-American game, baseball. The Jeff Hi Varsity team downed Burlingame Hi's Varsity recently 6 to 5, for the Indian's fourth Peninsula Athletic League win in six outings.

In the frosh-soph league, Coach Clarence Lair's team had only two big innings in their game against San Mateo, but that was enough to give the Papposes a 9 to 4 win over the San Mateo Frosh-Sophs.

A balk by Menlo-Atherton High chucker Joe Whitlock in the last of the 7th inning recently gave Jefferson High a 2 to 1 win over the Bears in a P.A.L. game played on Jeff's diamond, in the varsity league.
